Semester 2 Issue / Volume 2

WELCOME

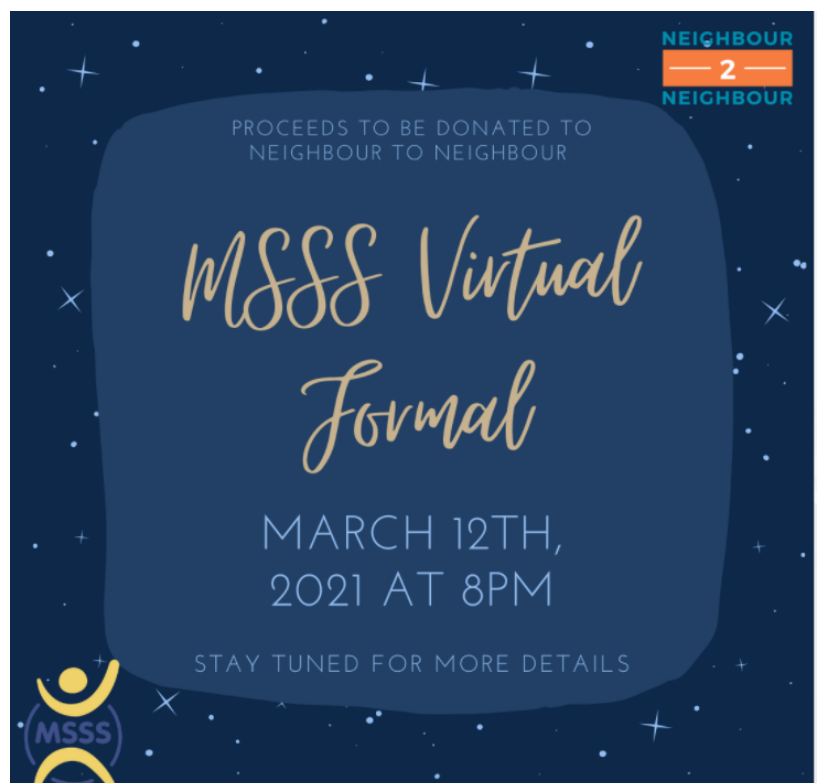

Happy New Year McMaster Social Sciences! Welcome to the new McMaster Social Sciences Society Newsletter! Here you will find all of the MSSS updates for the semester and take a look back at all of our upcoming initiatives!

PROGRAMMING EVENTS

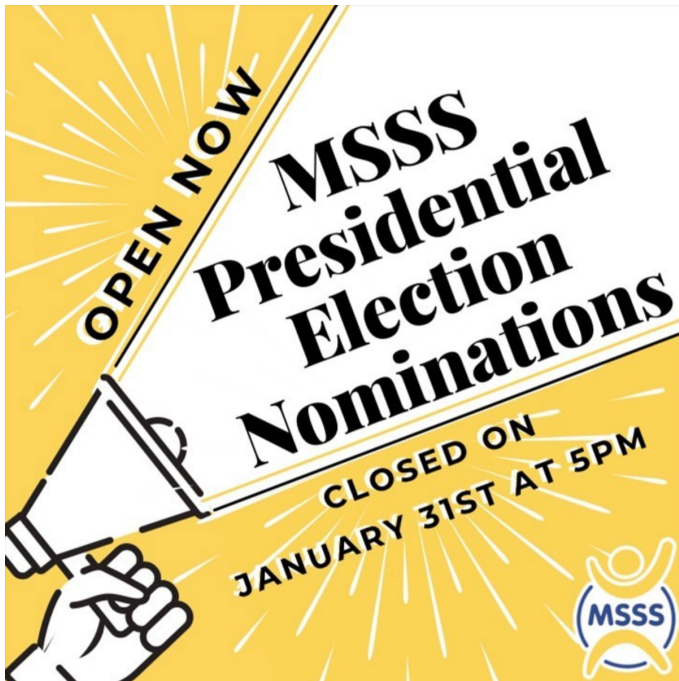

Our VP Programming Maryam Denno, our team of Student Representatives and Formal Committee have been hard at work creating some amazing online events and initiatives for our second semester!

Our very first Virtual Formal is coming soon on March 12th at 8 PM! Tune in to find musical acts, raffle prizes and some time to mingle with fellow Social Sciences Students!

We will also be having our Annual Career Crawl Month starting February 22nd to March 19th! We hope you can tune in to some amazing academic focused events!

ELECTIONS

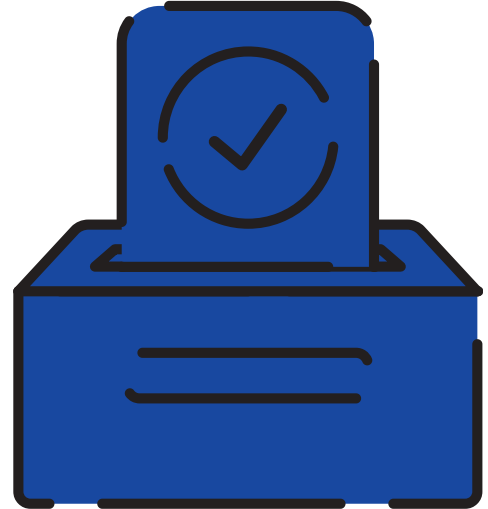

Election season is upon us! Do you have a passion for Social Sciences and programming, finances, administration or external communications? Well, then a Presidential or Vice Presidential position may be a perfect fit for you! Be sure to access our website for all the up to date information regarding the MSSS and our elections. There you will find important links, instructions for nominations and dates to note!

If you have any questions regarding elections please contact our Chief Returning Officer: Kristen Choi via email elections@themsss.com or our President Cole Badiani at president@themsss.com

Presidential Nominations are currently open and close on January 31st, 2021. After nominations, a campaign period complete with a debate and vote will take place through the month of February, be sure to make your voice heard by engaging!

Be sure to access our website for all the up to date information regarding the MSSS and our elections. There you will find important links, instructions for nominations and dates to note! Keep an eye out on our socials for dates, positions available and how to run!
